

2005 Langtry Estate Petite Sirah Serpentine Meadow Vineyard

This Estate wine is created from our premier Petite Sirah blocks growing in restrictive Serpentine soils of the Guenoc Valley. The 2005 Langtry Estate Petite Sirah has a complex mix of aromas; cedar, black pepper, plum and blackberry cobbler. On the palate, this Petite Sirah is big and mouth-filling with a mix of soft and chewy tannins. The finish has incredible length full of pomegranate, vanilla and blueberry. Pair with grilled lamb, game and hearty meat stews.

Appellation:	Guenoc Valley	Varietal:	100% Petite Sirah
Release Date:	October 2008	Barrel Aging:	26 months
pH:	3.50		60% French oak,
TA:	.67		40% American oak
Alc.:	14.5%	Production:	920 cases

THIS FIVE ACRE BLOCK TAKES ITS NAME FROM SOLIDIFIED MAGMA, HIGH IN MAGNESIUM CONTENT, FRACTURED TO FORM THE DEVIGORATING SOILS FOUND HERE. LONG A SOURCE OF REMARKABLE PETITE SIRAH, THIS MODERATELY DENSE PLANTING CREATES SMALL VINES, CLUSTERS AND BERRIES THAT ARE DEEPLY HUED AND OFFER LOVELY BLACKBERRY FLAVORS, UNUSUALLY POLISHED TANNINS AND EXQUISITE BALANCE.

SERPENTINE MEADOW VINEYARD

